

Gold Hill Skatepark

The Gold Hill Skatepark opened in April of 2013 as a result of years of planning, fundraising and a grant from the Oregon State Department of Parks and Recreation. The park is dedicated in memory of Gold Hill resident Tom Fish, who passed away in 2009. Parents Peter and Jan have brought this facility to life in his memory. Jan Fish, Skatepark advocate and mayor of Gold Hill, 2013. Peter Fish at the opening ceremony, 2013. Channel 12 story, skatepark opening, 2013 construction, which will more than double the View Slideshow